Dear Sir,

Sub: Appointment as a Non-Executive Independent Director of J. J. Automotive Limited (the "Company")

We are pleased to confirm your appointment as a Non-Executive Independent Director of the Company (the "Appointment") with effect from _____, which is pursuant to the provisions of Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules made thereunder and as approved by the Board of Directors in their meeting held on _____. As required under section 149 (7) of the Companies Act, 2013, we now request you to provide a declaration that you meet the criteria of independence as provided under section 149(6). For this purpose, we are suggesting a format as enclosed as Annexure A, which would meet the requirements of both Companies Act, 2013 & current clause 49 of the Listing Agreement as amended on 17 April 2014. Further, as stipulated under the Companies Act, 2013, the appointment of Independent Directors shall be governed by the Schedule IV to the Companies Act, 2013 - 'Code For Independent Directors', which primarily covers –

I. Guidelines of professional conduct

II. Role and functions

III. Duties

IV. Manner of appointment

V. Re-appointment

VI. Resignation or removal

VII. Separate meetings

VIII. Evaluation mechanism

The terms of the Appointment, which in any event shall be subject to Companies Act, 2013, Rules made thereunder and the Articles of Association of the Company are set out below, as stipulated in Schedule IV to the said Act.

Appointment

1. The Appointment is for a term of five consecutive years, expiring at the conclusion of _____ (the "Termination Date"). The Appointment will be subject to the approval of shareholders at the ensuing annual general meeting of the Company.
2. During your tenure as an Independent Director, you may be asked to serve on one or more of the Board committees. Copies of the terms of reference for each of those committees would be provided to you at the appropriate time, if not already provided for.

3. You will strictly abide by the Code for Independent Directors referred to above.
4. The Company expects a commitment of sufficient time and attention as necessary in order to perform your duties under the Appointment. This will include attendance at regular and emergency Board meetings, any annual meeting of Independent Directors and the Annual General Meeting. You may also be required to attend regular meetings of any Board committee of which you are a member. In addition, you will be expected to devote appropriate preparation time ahead of each meeting.
5. By accepting the Appointment, you confirm that you are able to allocate sufficient time to perform your role.

Role & Duties

6. As a Non-Executive Independent Director you have the same general legal responsibilities to the Company as any other Director, except that you shall be held liable only in respect of such acts of omission or commission by a company which had occurred with your knowledge, attributable through board processes and with your consent or connivance or where you had not acted diligently.
7. You will adhere to the following duties of directors, which are more specifically stipulated in Section 166 of the Companies Act, 2013, as under –
 - (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a director of a company shall act in accordance with the articles of the company.
 - (2) A director of a company shall act in good faith in order to promote the objects of the company for the benefit of its members as a whole, and in the best interests of the company, its employees, the shareholders, the community and for the protection of environment.
 - (3) A director of a company shall exercise his duties with due and reasonable care, skill and diligence and shall exercise independent judgment.
 - (4) A director of a company shall not involve in a situation in which he may have a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interest of the company.
 - (5) A director of a company shall not achieve or attempt to achieve any undue gain or advantage either to himself or to his relatives, partners, or associates and if such director is found guilty of making any undue gain, he shall be liable to pay an amount equal to that gain to the company.
 - (6) A director of a company shall not assign his office and any assignment so made shall be void.

Fees / Commission

8. Unless decided otherwise, you will be paid a sitting fee as per provisions of Section 197 of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Articles of Association, as may be fixed by the Board from time to time for your services as a Non Executive Independent Director for each meeting of the Board and committee thereof attended by you.

Other directorships and business interests

9. The Company acknowledges that you may have business interests other than those of the Company and that you may have declared any conflicts that are apparent at present. In the event that you become aware of any potential conflicts of interest, not declared so far, these may be disclosed to the Chairman and Company Secretary as soon as they become apparent.
10. During the Appointment, you may please inform us prior to accepting any other (or further) directorships of publicly quoted companies or any major external appointments, to avoid any conflict of interest with your current position in the Company.

Code of Conduct & other compliances

11. During the Appointment, you will comply with any relevant regulations as may be issued by the Government of India and such other authorized bodies as set up by the Government on its behalf, including the Code for Independent Directors, Insider Trading Code and such other requirements as the Board of Directors may from time to time specify.
12. At the first meeting of the Board in every financial year or whenever there is any change in the circumstances which may affect your status as an independent director, you shall give a declaration to that effect confirming that you meet the criteria of independence as provided in Section 149 (6).

Annexure A to this Letter

Confidentiality

13. You must apply the highest standards of confidentiality and not disclose to any person or company (whether during the course of the Appointment or at any time after its termination) any confidential information concerning the Company and any Group Companies with which you come into contact by virtue of your position as a Non-Executive Independent Director of the Company.
14. Your attention is drawn to the requirements under both legislation and regulation as to the disclosure of price-sensitive information. Consequently you should avoid making any statements that might risk a breach of these requirements without prior clearance from the Chairman or Company Secretary.
15. On termination of the Appointment, you will deliver to the Company all books, document, papers and other property of or relating to the business of the Company which are in your possession, custody or power by virtue of your position as a Non Executive Independent Director of the Company.

Performance Review Process

16. The performance of individual Directors and the whole Board and its Committees shall be evaluated by the Remuneration & Nomination Committee. If, in the interim, there are any matters arising in connection with your role as a Non-Executive Independent Director which cause you concern, you may discuss with us as soon as appropriate.

Publication of the letter of appointment

1. In line with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, the Company may make public a generic copy of this letter on its website at www.jjautomotive.co.in and the same shall be open for inspection at the registered office of the company by any member during normal business hours.

Please confirm your agreement to the above by signing and returning to me the enclosed duplicate of this letter.

Yours sincerely,
For J. J. Automotive Limited
